5.3. Family Fun Day Discussion

Theme being considered is transportation. Date is Aug 19th, Time 11-3

- Steam tractor
- Horses – Jeff will discuss with Bridget Ryan,
- Classic Cars
- OPP – Jeff will reach out to the OPP
- Include some accessibility parking – note that it will be available on the flyer
- Jeff will check with archives to see what they have that would be great to display ie rail photos, rail stations
- Rhowan will work on the poster
- Food Vendors, Food Trucks – looking for as many options as we can get
- Contact Bouncy Castle and Balloon Twister
- Jamie will talk to the town regarding booking Victoria Park for the event

5.4. Winter Decorations

Lloyd has the signs that have to be repaired. He has been in touch with Classic Display and the best plan is to bring them to their shop. A few are covered under warranty. Lloyd will take them down to Mississauga for repair.

Banners on the Arena

Waiting for flags for “Open for Business Project” to be ready. At that time the veterans flags will be taken down and replaced with this.

5.5. Tent

We have to look for a replacement tent. Lloyd will pick up and bill to The Garden Club

5.6. Benches

We had 6 benches possibly 8. 2 benches have been put out, 1 that is Hillsburgh and the other one that is out in town belongs to the Town of Erin. Looking to locate the ones that have not been put out.

6. Other Business

Rhowan brought up creating a directory of businesses located in Hillsburgh
Jamie brought up the "Touch a truck" event on Saturday at the Town office
