The Let's Get Hillsburgh Growing Committee

Working together to make Hillsburgh a beautiful place to visit, work and live.

Who are the LGHG?

The LGHG Committee members are interested citizens and representatives from businesses and community groups in the Hillsburgh area.

What does the LGHG do?

The LGHG is responsible for:

- the hanging baskets and planters that adorn Trafalgar Road during the summer
- in the winter replacing the hanging baskets with seasonal decorations
- assisting the Town with the maintenance of the Hillsburgh Historical Park and downtown Hillsburgh
- the colourful laser-cut steel signs on the hydro poles on Trafalgar Road
- the new signs at both entrances to the village of Hillsburgh

LGHG Projects for 2017:

- More colourful laser-cut signs down the main street
- New landscaping for the Hillsburgh Historical Park
- Benches for the sidewalks in downtown area
- New winter/seasonal decorations for downtown Hillsburgh
- Landscaping under the new "Welcome to Hillsburgh" signs

2017 Fundraising Activities
